Elected Road Commissioners

At the October session of quarterly court a county road commission of three members was elected, in accordance with the requirements of the new road law for Putnam county that was printed in the Herald some time ago. The court elected G. M. Johnson for the eastern division, T. J. Clark for the middle division and John S. McBroom for the western division.

The commissioners will elect a superintendent, who will draw a salary of $100 a month and who will devote his entire time to road work.
